The Gym Leader

One sunny morning, a Gym Leader opened her gym for the day. First, she counted her supplies: 24 berries and 18 Poke Balls — just enough for a busy day! Then a trainer ran in holding a tired Charmander, whose little flame was very small. She remembered her chart: water helps cool a hot, tired fire Pokemon and rest it safely, so she chose Squirtle to gently splash cool water nearby and gave Charmander water to drink and a cozy blanket. Next, a sad Psyduck arrived with a headache, holding its head and quacking quietly. She did not shout or rush. She gave Psyduck a quiet, shady spot, a soft pillow, and time to rest, because loud noise makes a headache feel worse. By lunchtime, both Pokemon were smiling again. The Gym Leader smiled too. Being a Gym Leader, she learned, is not just about winning battles — it is about knowing what each Pokemon needs and helping with a kind heart.
